Easter is over and Pentecost is right around the corner - the birthday of the church, the day the Holy Spirit first entered the disciples. The day that they went out preaching and the church grew by 3,000 people.

Then after that, people started to worship God through Jesus Christ. They worshipped in their homes at first and then after the persecution ended, they were able to build buildings called churches. And the writer of Hebrews advised that we fill the churches.

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.
Hebrews 10:24-25

“Not neglecting to meet together,” He is saying, “GO TO CHURCH.”

There was an interesting thing on Facebook from Tony Evans a preacher from Atlanta, Georgia. This is Tony typing: “I hear people say, “I don’t have to go to church to be a Christian,” and they are absolutely right. Salvation is through faith alone in Christ alone. But you don’t have to go home to be married but stay away long enough and your relationship will be affected.”

I say Amen to that, going to church strengthens our relationship with God. It is telling God that we are all in on this partnership. And that is one reason why I stopped the Facebook live showings of our services. At the churches of the Trinity, we would much rather have you coming to church in person than watching at home on your phone.

When we meet in person we edify each other, console each other, and celebrate with each other. If God did not want people to come together and worship Him as a group, I don’t believe that He would have put together the churches the way that He did.

Stirring up love and good works only makes our communities better. It will make the people of the communities better. I really cannot see a downside to this. See you all in church on Sunday.

Pastor John

Happy Mother's Day

In the breast of a bulb
 is the promise of spring;
In the little blue egg
 is a bird that will sing;
In the soul of a seed
 is the hope of the sod;
In the heart of a child
 is the kingdom of God.

William L. Stidger

Happy Father's Day
